Dear Larry,

I got a letter from Anne the other day in which she mentioned the National Junior Championships; I haven't got it with me but congratulations anyway for the titles you were allowed to get. Anne said she had never seen anything so disgusting in her life as the way they fixed the sabre and epee - especially [redacted] am extremely sorry about it but I suppose that you are quite hardened to it by now! Anyway I suppose that you will still get to Crystal Palace in [redacted]

That was really all I had to say; I have been meaning to send you these score sheets for so long - I have been carrying them round in my bag for weeks - hence their rather worn look! Still, not to worry. Cheer up, congratulations again, and see you in a couple of weeks,

Liz
